

Cook County Small Business Source

The Cook County Small Business Source strives to support, grow, and elevate small businesses, the backbone of Cook County's economy. Established in 2020, The Source is dedicated to connecting entrepreneurs with expert guidance through partnerships, and resources. (i.e. free business advising) For additional information, please visit: cookcountysmallbiz.org.

Business Advising Through the Source

The Alsip Chamber of Commerce is proud to partner with The Source to provide no-cost, one-on-one business advising services. Through the Source's award-winning business advising program, our experienced advisors work hand-in-hand with local small business owners to understand their unique needs, and to develop a pathway toward successful solutions. The dedicated advisors provide ongoing coaching, and support throughout the life cycle of a business, mentorship, and assistance to address a business' most pressing needs, including;

- Building or revising your business plan * Establishing credit
- Growing your customer base, or entering new markets
- Navigating, and securing procurement opportunities
- Preparing your business for grant, and loan opportunities

Best of all, this program is free for small businesses operating in Cook County operating with fewer than twenty (20) employees. To learn more, register at:
